Nondiscrimination and Accessibility Discrimination is Against the Law

Hospice of South Georgia complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. Hospice of South Georgia does not exclude people or treat them less favorably because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

Hospice of South Georgia:

- Provides people with disabilities reasonable modifications and free appropriate auxiliary aids and services to communicate effectively with us, such as:
 - Qualified sign language interpreters
 - Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats).

- Provides free language assistance services to people whose primary language is not English, which may include:
 - Qualified interpreters

If you need reasonable modifications, appropriate auxiliary aids and services, or language assistance services, contact our Director, Amanda Mason.

If you believe that Hospice of South Georgia has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with:
